Hello Splashers

Well, the weather is finally starting to cool down and people are thinking of putting their thongs and shorts away for perhaps the next couple of weeks, or at least until the Equinox is behind us.

Thanks to last week's sponsor Martin Palfrey, who organised the Skins Event won by Chris Hooke. Ryan Davis put in a champion effort to place second, and Gavin came in third, Kate Miller fourth and Karl Beeton a very impressive fifth place.

Was a fun day, lots of very competitive swimming....shame about those of us who had to swim in LANE SIX with some serious interference! Next year Gadget.

This Sunday's sponsor is Neil Buchanan Garden Care, so we are looking forward to running the 7 Lapper event!!

Carpet Biz and Carpet Power will sponsor the weekend after this.

Negotiations are underway with the Icebergs to set a date for GALA DAY which we celebrate by dancing around a giant pig.

SUPPORT YOUR CLUB AND HELP

Empty out the gear cupboard SALE NOW ON!

Look good, keep warm, swim faster.

The sales are on in the city. Be warned. Buying things that you would not have otherwise means you are NOT saving money. Buying your gear down the Bronte Splashers Club Room and in doing so supporting your club, however, is an exercise that makes perfect sense.

Our gear cupboard is overflowing, so please do as Adrian Rose and Paul Turner did last week and refresh your winter wardrobe.

See Keith or Emma. The white girls polo shirt t-shirts with blue embroidery are hot to trot. As are the men's black T-shirts. We have one hoodie left - its size 2XL. Any takers?
